Kingsbrae Arms in St. Andrews, New Brunswick, one of the dazzling Maritime Provinces kissed by the Bay of Fundy in the North Atlantic, is a member of the exclusive, world-renowned Relais & Châteaux family, setting the worldwide standard for excellence in hospitality and cuisine.

The essence of a stay at this intimate ten-room property centers on culinary experiences each morning & evening. Daily rates include full breakfast & chef's menu dinners. Kingsbrae is a pioneer in its earth-friendly approach to dining, emphasizing produce from the Inn's herb & vegetable garden plus locally sourced, organic & whole foods, all accompanied by impressive wines from their Wine Spectator Award winning cellar. French Chef Guillaume Delauné has worked through the ranks of fine restaurants including the famed Michelin-starred Le Moulin de Mougins under legendary Roger Verge. He has also worked at celebrated restaurants in New York & Montreal. His approach is completely natural & deceptively simple, incorporating his Provençale roots to interpret the seafood bounty of the Bay & rich countryside resources into unique and memorable dining moments.

Grand King Suites with balconies and Grand King Rooms command lush garden and distant sea views. Grand King amenities include gas log fireplaces, Satellite TV, Hi-speed and Wi-Fi Internet, guest controlled heat and air conditioning, and private marble appointed bathrooms.

Exclusive All-Inclusive Weddings

You bring the ring. We provide the estate.

For a complete, fully coordinated wedding experience, the entire estate with landscaped gardens is available for exclusive bookings. The inn has been the site of many small-scale weddings over the years. We specialize in custom-made events. Booking the entire hotel, restaurant and grounds ensures that nothing can interfere with such an important occasion. All our attention is focused on the needs of the wedding party and guests. We can accommodate up to 20 adults at the inn with some flexibility in our larger suites more adults or children. Additional accommodations for invited guests are available nearby. We can seat from 24-30 people in our main dining room. Buffet receptions for larger groups up to 50 can also be arranged.

If a small-scale, intimate wedding is what you envision, then Kingsbrae Arms might be perfect for you. We request a two night exclusive buy-out in May, June & September/three nights in July & August. A buy-out includes luxurious overnight accommodations, twice-daily housekeeping, full breakfast, exceptional made-to-order dinners, and attentive service. For wedding details we work with a highly recommended & certified local wedding planner. Call us.

And congratulations!

Picture Perfect Smaller Affairs

In addition to exclusive estate bookings, we have also hosted a number of smaller wedding ceremonies in secluded spots on the property. A favourite is on the balcony of the honeymoon suite with the view pictured above. Another is poolside in the garden.

Whether your plans include booking the entire estate, or gathering with a few friends with a la carte options, a highly recommended local wedding planner can take care of all the details to make this the memorable experience of a lifetime. Call us. We'll put you in touch.
